Course Overview

Professional development in the security industry cannot stand still. Threats evolve, operational environments change, and security professionals must continually maintain and enhance their skills to remain effective, compliant, and operationally ready.

Sorinteq's Continued Professional Development (CPD) Packages for Protective Security Professionals provide fully bespoke training programmes designed around the specific operational needs of individuals, teams, and organisations.

Whether your requirement is focused on trauma care, firearms competence, digital security, protective intelligence, due diligence, hostile environment awareness, or blended operational capability, our CPD packages are built to ensure your team remains current, capable, and professionally credible.

All Sorinteq courses are registered for CPD and recognised by Skills Governance, supporting progression through the professional security skills matrix and demonstrating a clear commitment to professional standards.
